

Marriage ROCKS for Christian Couples by Dr. Harold L. Arnold, Jr.

On-Air Interview Questions

1. Tell us about yourself. What got you interested in marriage education? How would you advise others who are interested in working with marriages?
2. There are hundreds of marriage books out there. What's different about yours?
3. I must admit that the Marriage ROCKS name is catchy. How did you come up with the title?
4. I understand that your ROCKS acrostic focuses on Redemption, Offering, Covenant, Knowledge, and Sacred Space. What do these terms mean in the context of marriage?
5. Why did you write a marriage book targeting African American couples?
6. This book focuses on African American marriages. Yet, your ROCKS model seems to have a broader scope. So, what makes this book speak specifically to African American couples?
7. Dr. Arnold, you make it clear that this book is unapologetically Christian. How, if at all, can non-Christians benefit from it?
8. There is also a Marriage ROCKS Leader's Guide available. For whom do you recommend this resource?
9. You titled one of your chapters, "Relinquishing your Imaginary Marriage." Describe for our listeners what an imaginary marriage is and why it should be given up.
10. In your book you suggest that "suitability" is a better measure of the purpose for a partnership than "compatibility." These concepts seem to overlap. How do you see them differently?
